The parish registers of St. Wilfrid's, Hickleton, down to 1694 have been lost for many years. In the seventeenth century, however, it was customary to send to York lists of the baptisms, marriages and burials for each year. Some of these, written on pieces of parchment, still exist in the Diocesan Registry at York, and are here printed in the first nine pages. The registers now existing are in two volumes. The first is a parchment volume in greenish-grey card-board covers with a leather back. It contains twenty parchment leaves, of which eleven pages are blank. On the front cover a square sheet of white paper is pasted, inscribed

Hickleton Registers begun in 1694

Inside the front cover is the following:

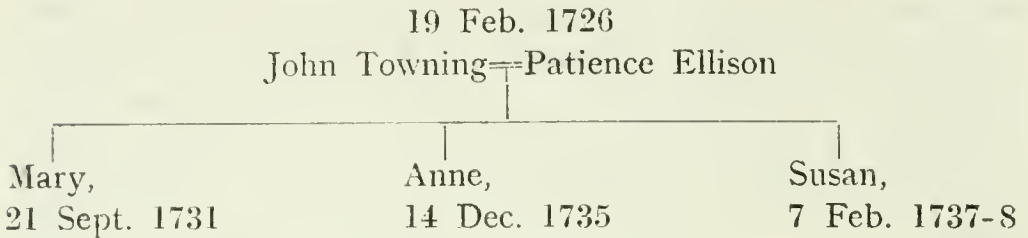

“Mem: By an Act of Parliam^t pass'd in the Year of our Lord 1751, and 24th Year of the Reign of George 2^d, it was enacted (amongst other things) that the Year should for the future commence on the 1st Day of January, and all Writings, whether Ecclesiastical or Civil, sh^d be dated according to this Regulation That 11 Days sh^d be omitted in Sep^r 1752, and the new Stile take place on the 14th Day of the said Month &c.”

This volume contains the entries of Baptisms from May 30th, 1694, to Nov. 18th, 1812; Marriages from 1695 to Feb. 13th, 1753; and Burials from April 18th, 1694, to June 28th, 1812.

The second is a leather-bound volume containing paper leaves, and is the official form of register of marriages provided for use in churches and chapels in accordance with the Act of 26 George II to prevent clandestine marriages. This volume contains the Marriage entries from May 6th, 1755, to June 28th, 1811.

These registers contain very little of special interest except some valuable information about the alterations and improvements made in the church by Charles, first Viscount, and Charles Lindley, second Viscount Halifax.

In pencil, opposite the first page of Marriages in the first volume, is written—

Under 1694 and 1699 there are references to tombstones in the churchyard. That of Robert Stead and Elizabeth his wife (1694) is one of four flat stones in a row, all illegible now. That of William Johnson, a table stone near the east end of the church, is still readable with difficulty.

NOTITIA PAROCHIALIA. W. M. H. Church, Vicar.

The oldest gravestones in the Churchyard are four w^h now, 1876, lie at the East end of it, but w^h formerly lay just Eastward of the Porch. The names are, on the 2^d from the Sth, Robert Stead & Elizabeth his wife 1694. The dates 1686. 1694

The North Aisle to the Chancel was built by Charles, first Viscount Halifax, the other walls raised, and the roof entirely renewed in 187 $\frac{5}{8}$, At wh. time the East window was renewed on the old lines and much other work done in the Church.

In the winter of 187 $\frac{5}{8}$ the Church-yard paths were widened and asphalted and the whole ground levelled and the graves made orderly by Lord Halifax. Lord H also gave an altar Frontal of white damask silk, and green and red velvet, which was used for the first time, at the early celebration on the day of his youngest daughter's marriage, the Feast of St Matthew 1876.

In December 1876 Lord Halifax paved the Sanctuary with black and white marble and gave two carved oak kneeling desks to replace the fixed altar rails.

On the 24 Sunday after Trinity 1876 the "Table Prayers" were discontinued on those Sundays on which there is an early celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

On the Sunday after Xtnas Day, 31 Dec: 1876, was commenced the practice of a choral service on all Sunday evenings. Dec^r 1877. Lord Halifax gave the two oak screens which are placed in the arches North & South of the Altar Table.

[The following are written at the end of the book.]

Doncaster Deanry. A true & perfect Terrier for the Curacy of Hickleton as followeth

- 1 An Endowment, Pension, Salary or Stipend of four Pounds a Year paid to the Curate by the Impropiator of the Rectory of Hickleton. [This is all that anciently and originally belong' to the Curacy, when it was served by a Curate from Burton, alias Monk-breton Abbey, unto which this Church & Parish
 (according to Tradition) formerly pertain'd]

All the Tythes & other Dues of the Parish, of what Kind or Nature soever belong to the Rectory impropriate.

- 2 An Augmentation of Two hundred Pounds from the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty fell by Lot to this Curacy at Michaelmas in the Year 1746.

In the Year 1748 Godfrey Wentworth Esq^r advanc'd the sum of Two hundred Pounds in Order to obtain a further Benefaction of Two hundred Pounds from the said Governors, which was accordingly added by them, when the said Godfrey Wentworth Esq^r had survived the twelve Calendar Months required by Act of Parliament

With these several Sums above mentioned was purchased in the Year 1749 an Estate at Great Tilts in the Parish of Doncaster, consisting of five Closes, Known by the Names of the Far Long Close, The Upper Long Close, The Near Moor Close, The Upper Moor Close, the Far Moor Close, containing in all 34 acres 1 rod 12 per and now let to John Whitley at the Clear Yearly Rent of 24£.

There are no Buildings belonging to this Curacy. And this is a true Account of all the Salaries, Stipends, Dues & Lands, belonging to the Curacy of Hickleton

Witness our Hands this 12th day of December 1751.
